Generating Generations

People of every generation, particularly the land's senior citizens, can be heard expressing their disillusionment about the people of their succeeding generation, the section of youth in particular, on a multitude of counts, specially their disrespect and disfavour of virtually every aspect of the land's time-honoured customs and traditions. The remarks by the elderly, downgrading the ways of life of the young in society, obviously, doesn't go down well in the latter's camp. Sociologists describe generation (equivalent to peelige in Kannada) as all of the people born and living at about the same time, regarded collectively. The average period generally considered to be about thirty years, during which children are born and grow up, become adults and begin to have children of their own. Going by the above description of the term generation, post-independent India has already hosted two generations and a third is well on way. The gap between the promises being made by different political parties with an eye on winning at the hustings and execution of the key policies needs to be guarded against further widening.

While inter-generation contrasting features of aspirations of people and their chosen routes for a lived reality are bound by the many compulsions of their periods, given the steady rise in the country's headcount and disproportionate rise in resources supporting life, the set of compulsions is witnessing their compulsive nature, unlike in the past when the relation between needs and resources was in the zone of comfort.

The profile of the present generation's youth in particular is adorable or not has a great deal to do with the extent to which their counterpart of an earlier generation kept vigil as mentors. In the same breath, one is prompted to argue that if all was well with past generations, then the mentors of successive generations must have played their part pro-actively in moulding the growing children into youth first and adulthood subsequently. The mix of backgrounds of Indians is a lot more different than most other regions of the world due to reasons not far to seek. Added to this, the vacuum in leadership to keep the society on track is glaring, as observed by many in the circles of knowledgeable persons.

The sections of society whose young members are doing well in life and contributing to the wellness of the nation through their exemplary work culture are the true role model for the rest. The task of preventing the country's youth from going astray calls for commitment in generating a resurgent generations over years ahead.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Since childhood, we've been told of the ill-effects of smoking cigarettes. Cigarette cartons come with graphic warnings about how smoking kills. While we're intolerant of cigarette smoke, we're shockingly accepting of the toxic air in our cities. Delhi has been in the news for its deplorable air quality for few years now — breathing the air in that city is equal to smoking 20 cigarettes a day. Is Bengaluru better off? Bengaluru's problem is what we can call the 'blue sky' syndrome. The beautiful blue skies and near-perfect climate belie the poor air quality. Most people are oblivious to just how bad the situation is.

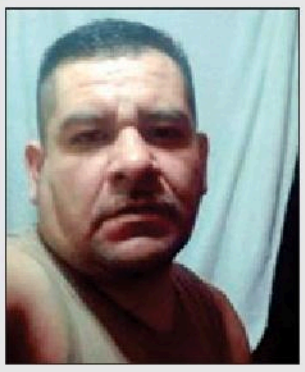
Man in prison for murder of a person who is still alive



Texapan: Manuel Germán Ramírez Valdovinos of Mexico has been in prison for 19 years, serving a sentence of 43 years for the murder of a man who is allegedly alive and well.

Valdovinos used to work as a music teacher at a school in the town of Texapan, in the State of Mexico. On May 26, 2000, he was celebrating his son's one-month anniversary with his wife, when eight Policemen stormed into his home, beat him, handcuffed him and put him into the back of a car with no license plates. He was arrested without a warrant and taken to the local Police Station where he was tortured with electric shocks and accused of the murder of a person he barely knew. Manuel was only 22-years-old at the time.

Dead Humpback Whale found in Amazon jungle

Brazil: were stunned to discover the A dead young humpback whale found on a remote island in the Amazon jungle by Marine biologists in Brazil has shocked them as it should have migrated 4,000 miles away, to Antarctica.

The whale's body was found by members of the conservation group Bicho D'Água, after they spotted vultures circling a mangrove on Marajo Island in northern Brazil. The marine mammal, approximately 26-feet-long, was lodged in thick shrubs and brush, about 50 feet from the shore. A team from the region's Municipal Secretariat of Health, Sanitation, and Environment inspected the carcass and reported that it did not appear to have any visible injuries, so until officials conduct a necropsy, the cause of death remains a mystery. At this time, the two main theories are that a powerful tide launched the whale inland, or that it died at sea and was carried onto land by people.

Pilot Abhinandan handed over to Indian High Commission

- Expected to cross Wagah border after 3 pm
- Thousands gather at the border to accord hero's welcome

New Delhi, Mar. 1- India is waiting to welcome Wing Commander Abhinandan Varthaman, the Indian Air Force pilot in Pakistan's captivity, with bated breath. Latest reports from across the border say that Abhinandan has been handed over to Indian High Commission in Pakistan at Islamabad and he is expected to cross Wagah border after 3 pm.

The Indian High Commissioner in Islamabad has completed documentation procedures and the Pakistani Ministry of Foreign Affairs has given a go-ahead.

On his return journey, Abhinandan, the second-generation IAF pilot, will be received by Group Captain J.T. Kurian, Air Advisor in the Indian High Commission. From Attari, Abhinandan will be flown to New Delhi.

"Wing Commander Abhinandan Varthaman will cross the border today. I can't tell you exact time since there are certain formalities. A senior Indian Air Force team from Delhi is in Amritsar, they will be the ones to receive him," Amritsar Deputy Commissioner Shiv Dular Singh Dhillon told reporters.

"There is uncertainty yet about timing of arrival of Abhinandan, but it seems sure that he will return after 4 pm. He may be handed over to India during the beating retreat ceremony," Dhillon added.

Pilot Abhinandan Varthaman

The IAF pilot was taken into custody by Pakistan on Wednesday after he landed on the other side of the Line of Control as his aircraft crashed during an aerial dogfight between India and Pakistan. In a diplomatic victory for India, Pakistan Prime Minister Imran Khan had yesterday announced that the captured IAF pilot will be freed as a "gesture of peace" "Abhinandan was brought by Pakistani authorities from Rawalpindi to Lahore and handed over first to the International Committee of Red Cross (ICRC) under rules of the Geneva Convention before being brought to the Indian High Commission at Islamabad to return home," sources said.

The two new taluks carved out will be Cauvery Taluk from Kushalnagar and Ponnampet Taluk in the South.

With this, Kodagu will have five taluks, the other three being Madikeri, Virajpet and Somwarpet. The CM made this announcement at a programme organised for allotting houses to the displaced tribals of Diddahalli, at Basavanahalli, near Kushalnagar. He also launched a slew of development works at a cost of Rs. 2,146 crore.

He directed the Deputy Commissioner to consult experts and explore precautionary steps to be taken in the wake partially collapsed hills before the onset of monsoon.

Kodagu District Minister S.R. Mahesh said the CM had visited Kodagu district six times since he assumed office and argued that the government was completely with the people of Kodagu.

Kodagu flood: Rs. 5 lakh to Manjula's parents

On the occasion, the Chief Minister handed over a cheque for Rs. 5 lakh to the parents of Manjula, a student, who was feared dead in the landslips at Jodupala last year. MLAs K.G. Bopaiah, Appachu Ranjan and others were present.

State order to restore cadre, pay scale to SC/ST staff challenged in SC

New Delhi, Mar. 1 - A plea was filed in the Supreme Court yesterday, seeking stay of the Karnataka government's order, issued "hurriedly" a day before, restoring cadre and pay scales of thousands of SC/ST employees who were demoted in terms of the top Court's judgement in the B.K. Pavitra case.

Senior advocate Rajeev Dhavan and advocate Kumar Parimal, appearing for the general category of employees, mentioned the application before a Bench presided over by Justice U.U. Lalit, seeking urgent hearing.

"The State, by its order on Feb. 27, has wilfully and deliberately flouted the orders passed in contempt proceeding which is still pending. Thus, the act of the State is not only audacious violation of the undertaking given to this Court at the time of hearing of the contempt petition and writ petitions, but also contemptuous," the counsel contended.

The Court agreed to post the application for consideration today before the Bench, also comprising Justice D.Y. Chandrachud.

Notably, the Apex Court is seized of a batch of petitions filed by general category of employees, seeking directions to the State government to comply with the Feb. 9, 2017 judgement, which had quashed the law granting reservation in promotion to Scheduled Caste (SC) and Scheduled Tribe (ST) employees.

Besides, separate writ petitions have been filed against the Karnataka government's fresh law, passed last year, to nullify the impact of the judgement. Final arguments have been advanced before the Court on several dates. It was heard last time on Feb. 13 and has now been posted for consideration on March 13.

The application contended, "the government order shows that defiance is apparent and the action of the State must be treated as deliberate and intentional."

"It is relevant to point out here that the undertaking given by the Advocate General for the State to maintain status quo has been altered at the fag end of the hearing, particularly when the Act, published in Karnataka State Gazette on June 23, 2018, was never implemented," it added.

Chamundi Vihar Stadium neglected: Official apathy

Sir,

Chamundi Vihar Stadium in Nazarbad is a very good stadium for athletes and sportspersons. However, the tragedy is that because of the negligence of the officials concerned, it has turned into a den of anti-social elements.

In many places the compound and fence around the stadium is broken and anyone can walk inside it without any hindrance. The miscreants who come in the guise of playing have damaged the ground. As there is no proper lighting, the stadium is pitch dark in the evening which again encourages all kinds of illegal activities.

On one side of the stadium, hostels for boys and girls have been constructed and when the water tanks get filled no one even bothers to switch off the pump thus wasting precious water which keeps flowing for hours.

The scene inside the stadium is no different as it is filled with garbage, plastic glasses, paper cups and leftover food. The plastic-free calling of the Mysuru City Corporation and the Swachh Bharat campaign seems to have fallen on deaf ears here.

The Deputy Commissioner is the in-charge officer of this stadium. But one does not know how many times he has visited the place to inspect it. Even though the Government spends crores of rupees on sports, one does not know where the money is going. Lots of money is given for security too but not a single security personnel is to be found in the stadium.

Above all one only hopes that incidents like the gutting of cars in Aero India Show in Bengaluru or the forest fire in Bandipur, does not occur here, as the whole place is surrounded by dry grass. Lot of sports activities take place here and thousands visit the stadium. Hence, the authorities concerned must immediately get the place cleared of dry grass to prevent any fire tragedy.

The DC and the Sports Department officials must immediately visit the stadium and inspect the place and take steps to see that the place is clean and there is enough security.

Over a cup of evening Tea

By Dr. K. Javeed Nayeem, MD

An Interesting Cyber-Chase!

Last week a lady colleague of my son, Adnan, found upon arrival at the office that her very expensive mobile phone was missing. When a careful search in and around the office premises did not yield any results she rang up her number from the office only to find that it was ringing but no one was receiving her call. Presuming that the phone had fallen out of her handbag and was probably lying somewhere on the road, she activated a special feature called 'Find my Phone' built into it.

This is a GPS-enabled software installed in the phone to trace its location in case it was lost or misplaced. This app immediately showed the location of the phone on one of the busy roads close to the office. So two young and enthusiastic lads Likith and Kritman from the office were dispatched immediately on a motorbike to try and locate the phone. That was when an interesting thing happened.

As they neared its indicated location the phone started moving along the road ! This was a clear indication that it was now in the possession of someone who had found it on the roadside and was going somewhere. The two boys started 'chasing' it relentlessly wherever it went, in and around the neighbourhood for nearly two full hours very often catching up with it and then missing it by a whisker. But they were soon caught up in traffic and found themselves getting progressively distanced from the location of the phone. They informed their predicament to my son who advised them to abandon their pursuit and return to the office.

Realising that the chase now required professional help, my son and his colleague immediately approached the Jayalakshmipuram Police Station for help. They explained the problem to Suresh Kumar, the young Inspector who was in charge there and also showed him on their laptop what the software was indicating. He was pretty amazed by the advanced feature which by this time was showing that the phone was now moving at a very brisk pace along a road leading out of the city towards Hunsur. This was a clear indication that the person who was in possession of the phone had boarded a vehicle.

The Inspector immediately deputed two of his men, Assistant Sub-Inspector Venkata Shetty and Civil Police Constable M.V. Mahendra to accompany my son and pursue the phone. They drove along the road indicated on their laptop and found that the GPS was leading them towards the backwaters of KRS dam. The pursuit had to be made frenzied and fast paced now because the software started showing that the battery power remaining in the pursued phone was only seven percent. If the battery went dead, there would simply be no way of tracking its location! It would mean the end of their tech-savvy pursuit when it was about to bear fruit and the beginning of another search based on archaic investigating methods the results of which would be very uncertain.

Thankfully the movement of the phone soon stopped at a village on the edge of the backwaters indicating that the person who had the phone had now halted there. The geographical coordinates of this location were marked and Google Earth showed that there was a tiled house there flanked by a large tree. The team soon reached the village and also the indicated street which had just a few houses. They found the first house locked and Mahendra who was in uniform knocked on the closed door of the second house. The door was opened by an elderly lady who seemed startled to see the Policeman.

Without a second thought she just blurted, "Yes, the phone is with us!" She then called out to her husband and informed him that the Police had come looking for the phone that he had found. The old man brought the phone and handed it to the Police telling them that he had found it lying on the road when he had gone to the city to sell the green gram that he had grown. He also explained to them that he knew nothing about operating the phone and was waiting for his sons to come back from work so that he could ask them to call up the owner and arrange to return it !

An honest, hard-working man indeed with very good intentions and a happy ending to an interesting chase!

But the story is not over. There is a more interesting and amusing twist to this tale. As they were triumphantly returning to the city, Mahendra told my son that towards the end of their chase he had actually developed cold feet and goose bumps. The reason was that the house next to the one where they had found the phone belonged to his own sister and brother-in-law and he was therefore fervently praying to God that it would not be found in their possession!

Time is short and the water falls !

Time is short and the water rises' was the title of a very absorbing article that I had read in the 'Reader's Digest' way back in my childhood around the late sixties. It is the story of 'Operation Gwamba' through which more than 10,000 animals were rescued from certain death and relocated at Surinam by John Walsh of the Massachusetts SPCA when a new dam built by Alcoa Aluminium Corporation was causing the inundation of 870 square miles of South American rain forest. He worked relentlessly with his team for eighteen months to save helpless creatures that included sloths, armadillos, tortoises and porcupines, ant eaters and even snakes.

'Time is short and the water level falls' here at our dear old Karanji Lake threatening to kill all the helpless denizens that depend on it for their survival. Mind you, there are tens and thousands of them here and it is time we did something to save them. The plans of laying pipes and pumping in treated sewage are yet to take off and will certainly take a very very long time by which time it will be certainly be too late. So can we quickly pump in some fresh water from the mains running alongside the Lake to keep life going through the summer that is upon us?

KSOU Convocation

on Mar.5 for 2012-13 batch

Mysuru, Mar.1 (NNN) - At last the smiles are back on the students and officials of the beleaguered Karnataka State Open University (KSOU) as it is holding its first convocation after a gap of seven years on Mar.5 for the 2012-13 batch of students.

Prof. Shivalingaiah

The 16th convocation will be held at the Muktagangothri Convocation Hall at 11 am. Higher Education Minister and Pro-Chancellor G.T. Devegowda will preside. National Assessment and Accreditation Committee (NAAC) Bengaluru Director Prof.S.C. Sharma will be the chief guest. KSOU Vice-Chancellor Prof. D. Shivalingaiah, Registrar (Evaluation) Dr. M.S. Ramanand and Registrar Prof. B. Ramesh will participate.

Speaking to Star of Mysore here this morning, Prof. Shivalingaiah said that the Convocation is being held for the students admitted in 2012-13 and earlier batch of students, who have passed subsequently during the recognition period. Even Ph.D holders will also be given certificates. The degrees for the 2013-14 batch is also under process and once the approval comes, the convocation for this period will be held shortly, he added.

Governor not attending

Governor Vajubhai R. Vala, who is also the Chancellor of KSOU, however, is not attending the convocation. A source in the Open University, speaking on condition of anonymity, told SOM that in spite of the best efforts of the KSOU administration, the Governor has refused to attend.

"It would have been very good for KSOU if the Governor had attended the Convocation as that would have erased the bad name the University had earned following the de-recognition by University Grants Commission (UGC). But somehow the Governor has skipped most of the convocations this year and he even did not attend the convocation of Tumkur University held last week," he said.

KSOU VC term ends on Mar. 10

Meanwhile, the term of the present KSOU Vice-Chancellor Prof. Shivalingaiah ends on Mar.10. He might be given an extension for another year like a few VCs earlier or a new Vice-Chancellor appointed.

State Conference of Journalists at Suttur

Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji and Adichunchanagiri Seer Sri Nirmalanandanatha Swamiji inaugurating the 34th Journalists State Conference at Suttur Srikshetra this morning as Higher Education Minister G.T. Devegowda, MLA and JD(S) State President A. H. Vishwanath, Mysuru District Journalists Association President C.K. Mahendra and others look on. Picture right shows the dignitaries viewing the Letterpress printing machine on display at the Media Exhibition.

Suttur, Mar.1 (RK&NNN)- Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji and Adichunchanagiri Seer Sri Nirmalanandanatha Swamiji jointly inaugurated the two-day 34th Journalists' State-level Conference in a novel way by signing their names on a plate and lighting the lamp.

Sri Nirmalanandanatha Swamiji said that the role of media in today's world has assumed great significance and it is the responsibility of journalists to give correct and credible news. If information they provide is wrong, then it will have serious consequences that may even lead to disastrous results, he cautioned.

He gave an example from the epic Ramayana where the cause for misunderstanding between Rama and Sita was the wrong information given by the spokesperson (ಬಾತ್ಮೀದಾರ). Hence giving false, fake or malicious information may lead to many problems. This had happened thousands of years ago but even today such things happen, Swamiji said.

Another significant role that media needs to play is to highlight the talents of achievers. Only then will people come to know about the kind of good work happening in the society which in turn might influence others to follow them, he opined.

Reporting should always be based on facts and not hearsays and rumours. For instance, media persons should focus on the basic necessities that people require and bring it to the notice of the government as it is always said pen is mightier than the sword, said the Swamiji.

Media exhibition inaugurated

District Minister G.T. Devegowda inaugurated the Media Exhibition which is being held for the first time and has been named in the memory of late journalist Rajashekar Koti.

Narayanagowda, Mysuru Travels Association President B.S. Prashanth, Mysuru District Journalists Association (MDJA) President C.K. Mahendra, Vice- President Subramanya, General Secretary K.J. Pilot Abhinandan

Special flight denied

India wanted to send a special flight to bring back Abhinandan but Pakistan denied permission. Sources say India wanted to bring him back to Delhi in a special IAF flight and take him away for a debriefing and medical check-up. Officials did not want the pilot to be accosted by reporters, reports said.

Standing ovation for parents

Abhinandan's parents arrived in New Delhi last night and are in Amritsar to welcome him. Abhinandan is the son of Air Marshal (Retd.) Varthaman and Dr Shobha Varthaman. The parents were given a standing ovation as passengers made way for them in the flight ensuring that the couple gets off first. In photos and videos shared by passengers on social media platforms, the couple can be seen acknowledging the clapping, cheers and thank you with nods of their heads.

Release challenged in Pak court

A Pakistani activist today filed a petition in a court, challenging the release of Abhinandan Varthaman. The court, however, rejected the writ petition filed by an Islamabad-based activist.

Mood upbeat at Wagah

Meanwhile, as India awaits Abhinandan's return, the mood at the Indian side of Wagah is quite energetic. People reached Wagah border in Amritsar with drums, garlands and flags to receive Abhinandan. People started arriving in Attari, around 30 km from Sikh holy city of Amritsar, since 6 am. Their numbers swelled by this noon.

Aradhana Mahotsavas

By Dr. Rama V. Bennur

Pushya Bahula Panchami happens to be the most sacred day to musicians to pay rich tribute to the most revered and popular Saint composer Sri Tyagaraja. Music to him was a way to experience God. His keerthanas, which are an expression of his deep devotion to his favourite Lord Sri Rama, stand testimony for this. Hundreds and thousands of his compositions, including the famed Pancharathna Keertanas echo from Thiruvaiyaru to every nook and corner of the country during his Aradhana. This commemorative music festival goes on through February.

Tyagaraja was influenced by Purandaradasa, the Pitamaha of Karnatak Sangeetha at a very young age. Incidentally, Purandaradasa's death ceremony too falls on Mouni amavasya, close to that of Sri Tyagaraja's. Hence, both are combined and celebrated. Almost all the music Sabhas celebrate this aradhana with fervour and devotion. Music concerts, Goshti Gayana and honouring senior musicians, musical plays are some of the features of this aradhana mahotsava. Ganabharathi emphasises on bringing out unheard padas of different Haridasas and celebrates two days of Haridasotsava every year apart from the Goshti Gayana of Pancharathna Kruthis.

Haridasotsava was held on the 2nd and 3rd of February at Veene Seshanna Bhavana. Nearly 50 artistes participated with full enthusiasm and enthralled the rasikas with many Devaranamas. Shylaja Bhat, Srinath, R.N. Srilatha, Nithin Rajarama Shastry sang on the 2nd evening. M.A. Jyothi, Niranjan, Sunitha Hiremath, Ramesh Kolkund, Rajalakshmi Sridhar, Sharada Bhat Kattigi, M.S. Bhaskar, Sukanya Prabhakar, T.P. Vaidyanathan and G.S. Rajalakshmi performed on the 3rd of February.

Violinists M.A. Jyothi, Veena Suresh, Tandavamurthy, H.K. Narasimhamurthy, C.A. Nataraj, Keshava and C.N. Tyagaraju and Percussionists like Kumaraswamy, J.T. Swamy, H.L. Shivashankaraswamy, Saishivu Lakshmi Keshava, G.S. Ramanujam, A. Radhesh, Bheemashankar, Parameshwara Hegde, Ramesh Dhannur and Harmonium players like Veerabhadriah Hiremath, Sriram Bhat and Deepak Naganavar and Nithin Rajarama Shastry accompanied the singers. Few unheard compositions of Haridasas came to light on the occasion.

Tyagaraja Sangeetha Sabha celebrated the aradhana on the 10th of February at Sri Prasanna Parvathi Kalyana Mantapa. Uncha vruthi was followed by honouring the senior musicians and music promoters.

Vidu. G.N. Nagamani Srinath, G.S. Vijaya Sitaram, Bhagyalakshmi Chandrasekhar, H.L. Gopalakrishna and A.R. Sridhar were honoured. This was followed by Goshti Gayana lead by Vidushis and Vidwans of Mysuru like H.K. Narasimhamurthy, R.S. Nandakumar, R.N. Srilatha, Nagamani Srinath, Koviladi Kala, Veena Suresh, G.S. Rajalakshmi, N.R. Prashanth, Manasanayana, Rajyasri Josyar, Neeraja Achyutha Rao, A. Radhesh and many more.

Starting from the Pillari Geethas of Purandara dasa, all the five Pancharathna keerthanas were sung in unison. Thus, the salutations to Puranadara and Tyagaraja goes on and on.

'Race for 7'

awareness run on Mar.3

Mysuru, Mar.1- JSS Academy of Higher Education and Research (JSSAHER) in association with Organisation For Rare Diseases of India (ORDI) is organising 'Race for 7' Marathon on Mar.3. It will be flagged off at Balarama Gate of Mysore Palace at 6.30 am.

ORDI is committed to raise awareness about rare diseases, to empower patients and their families with access to national and international resources. Globally, the last day of Feb. is commemorated as Rare Diseases Day since 2008.

Rare diseases affect more people than the name suggests. In fact 1 out of 20 Indians. Among these, 50% are children; sadder still, most of them die before their fifth birthday due to lack of appropriate medical intervention. But the race against rare diseases is gaining momentum. As per record, more than 7,000 rare diseases have been documented so far. Racefor7 symbolically represents the 7,000 rare diseases with 7,000 people running for 7 kms (7000 mts).

Scrap dealer arrested for sharing sensitive post

K.R. Pet (Mandya District), Mar. 1- The K.R. Pet Town Police arrested Shafi, a scrap dealer, for sharing photographs of a Pakistan soldier kissing his flag, on the social media on Wednesday night and produced him before a Court yesterday. Shafi owns a scrap shop on Taluk Office Road.

At a time when tension prevails due to the ongoing air-strikes on the India-Pakistan border, Shafi has shared the pictures on his Facebook wall.

Representatives of various organisations including Vishwa Hindu Parishad, Jaya Karnataka, Chalavadi Mahasabha and Taluk Auto Drivers and Owners Association staged a protest in front of the Town Police Station, alleging that such posts will disturb peace and harmony among the people in the town, and demanded that Shafi be banished from the taluk.

He was produced before the Court yesterday but no lawyer came forward to represent him. Bar Association President M.R. Rajesh has stated in a press release that the Association has decided not to represent Shafi, who has allegedly supported the rival country, by sharing such sensitive posts.

City travel agency cheats actor, his friends

Mysuru, Mar. 1 (RK&BCT)- Actor, writer, director and stand-up comedian Srinath Vasishta has filed a Police complaint against a private travel agency for alleged cheating.

Actor Srinath

Vasishta, along with his friends, had booked a package foreign trip with Mysuru-based 'Go Enjoy Holidays', a travel agency, by paying Rs 8.90 lakh. But the agency had allegedly sent them fake air tickets. When the actor contacted one Chandrashekar, who was running the agency, he assured him of returning the money.

According to the complaint with Nazarbad Police, Vasishta has mentioned that Chandrashekar has returned Rs. 3 lakh and now, he is claiming that he has closed the agency and thus cannot return the full amount. Accepting the complaint, the Police have issued an acknowledgement to Srinath Vasishta and have summoned Chandrashekhar on Mar. 5 for interrogation. An FIR is likely to be filed on that day.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Srinath Vasishta said that he lived in Vijayanagar in Bengaluru and in 2018 January, he and his 19 friends from Rotary Jnanodaya and Rotary Greater Club decide to go on a tour to Singapore and Royal Caribbean Cruise.

Srinath said that when they searched on the Internet, they came across 'Go Enjoy Holidays' at Siddarthanagar in Mysuru owned by Chandrashekar. "We spoke to him and it was decided that we had to pay Rs. 58,000 per person for a 7-night-and 8-day trip. Some of the members of TV Artistes Sports and Cultural Committee knew Chandrashekar and the deal was finalised and in all, we (20 members) paid Rs 8.90 lakh. Even two of our friends who were not sure of the travel had paid Rs. 35,000 each and Chandrashekhar had promised to return the money in case they did not travel," Srinath said.

He said that the dates for the travel was finalised and as the flight date drew close, Chandrashekar sent them the tickets. "Shockingly, when we enquired at the airport, the tickets were found to be fake. When we asked an explanation, Chandrashekhar gave lame excuses and promised us to return the money. Accordingly, he returned Rs. 3 lakh," Srinath said.

Srinath alleged that Chandrashekhar failed to return the money even after one year. "We found out that he was running another travel agency at Vidyapeetha Circle in Bengaluru. When we demanded our money, Chandrashekhar sent us a lawyer notice in August last year that he has applied for insolvency at a Mysuru Court and could not repay the money," he said.

Fed up by the delay, Srinath lodged a complaint with the Nazarbad Police on Feb. 27 and Inspector Mahadevaswamy has issued an acknowledgment for the complaint. Chandrashekhar has been summoned to the Police Station on Mar. 5 for questioning.

Man accused of igniting fire in Bandipur forest arrested

Prime accused Arun Kumar (centre), seen with the Forest officials after he was nabbed from his relative's house yesterday.*

Mysuru, Mar. 1 (MTY&KS) - The Forest Officials have been successful in nabbing the prime accused, who had set fire to the Bandipur Reserve Forest region in the Gopalaswamy Hill limits.

The prime accused is Arun Kumar, son of Nagalingegowda of Kallipura in Gundlupet taluk. He was produced before a Court, which has remanded him to judicial custody.

Arun had lit fire on the night of Feb. 22 and had gone absconding. Acting on a tip off, the Forest officials traced him at his relative's house at a nearby village and arrested him yesterday.

Arun, who owns agricultural land at the foot of Gopalaswamy Hill, used to sleep in the field at nights and on Feb. 22 at about 9.30 pm, he had lit fire at four places in the forest. Forest Watchers, who observed the fire, rushed to the spot to douse it and saw Arun coming out of the forest and go inside the shed built in his field. But when a guard went near the shed, Arun had gone missing from there.

Range Forest Officer (RFO) H. Puttaswamy and others took part in the nabbing operation.

Bandipur Forest is not completely gutted

Clarifies new Project Tiger Director

Safari commences today

Mysuru, Mar. 1 (MTY&KS)- Though the fire has destroyed a portion of Bandipur Forest, the entire forest is not burnt and no wildlife has been harmed, clarified new Bandipur Project Tiger Director T. Balachandra.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, he said that as the fire mishap took place in the forest adjoining the main road, it has come in the minds of the people that the entire Bandipur has been destroyed in the fire which is not true and clarified that only some parts of the forest has been destroyed. No harm has been caused to the thick forest vegetation in other parts besides stating that the wildlife was safe and no harm has been caused to them.

Taking charge as the new Director in place of former Director Ambadi Madhav, Balachandra, who held a meeting with the forest staff instructed them to work for the conservation of the forest as summer would continue for 70 days more. Stating that though 35 summer days have passed and 70 more days is yet to go, he said that the forest staff would be keeping a hawk eye over the forest day and night to thwart any incidents of fire and added that the co-operation of the public and residents of villages in forest borders was needed to safeguard forests.

Balachandra said that watchers, guards and other forest staff have been provided food, medicines and other facilities and leaves have been cancelled. Stating that the villagers should teach a lesson to those who ignite fire in forests, Balachandra has requested the villagers to inform the Department against such persons who try to destroy forest.

He said that precautions are being taken to see that such incidents do not occur again and added that Quick Response Teams have been deployed in vehicles in all forest zones. Three big and 11 small fire extinguishing vehicles are being used.

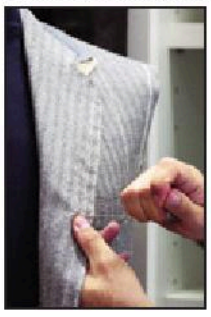
WORD OF THE DAY

Sartorial

Pronunciation: sa:to:rrel



Meaning: Relating to tailoring, clothes, or style of dress.

Origin: Sartorial comes from the Modern Latin word sartor which means "tailor," literally "one who patches and mends." In English the adjectives sartorial and sartorially are used to refer to any matter pertaining to the consideration of clothing or fashion. The root word sartor has also made its way into the field of biology. The sartorius — a muscle in the leg and the longest muscle in the human body — gets its name because it is used when crossing the legs, also known as the "tailor's position."

Example: "So naturally, the designers showed their own version of the men's shorts suit that caused a sartorial stir this season, thanks to Le Bron James and his NBA Cavaliers team". — Booth Moore, The Hollywood Reporter, "Wolk Morais Taps Into Midcentury California Cool For Runway Show," 27 June 2018. Mary is hardly the first royal to take sartorial inspiration from Kennedy, who is widely regarded to be one of America's most fashionable first ladies. — Caroline Hallemann, Town & Country, "Crown Princess Mary of Denmark Just Channeled Jackie Kennedy in a Pink Pillbox Hat," 7 Dec. 2018.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Loose lips sink ships

Meaning: 'Loose lips sink ships' was a wartime expression meaning 'unguarded talk may give useful information to the enemy'.

Origin: This phrase was coined as a slogan during WWII as part of the US Office of War Information's attempt to limit the possibility of people inadvertently giving useful information to enemy spies. The slogan was actually 'Loose Lips Might Sink Ships. This was one of several similar slogans which all came under the campaigns basic message - 'Careless Talk Costs Lives'. The slogan was in use by 1942, as this example came from the Maryland paper The News, May 1942 shows: At countians [attendees at the local county school] registered in the high school lobby before the opening of the meeting, they were surrounded on all sides by placards bearing such admonitions as "Loose Lips Might Sink Ships", "Defence On The Sea Begins On The Shore", "Defence In The Field Begins In The Factory" and patriotic creeds and slogans.
